DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lanvers (DE4404672) in view of Herlache (US Patent 5,788,917). Lanvers teaches the basic method claimed as discussed in the instant specification. Regarding claims 1 and 11, Lanvers does not teach that the gas is injected in a direction parallel to the longitudinal axis of the mold. Herlache teaches a method of gas assist injection molding wherein the article is molded from polypropylene (column 3, lines 19-20) and the gas and plastic are injected from the base portion of the mold, in a direction parallel to the longitudinal axis (See Figures 5A-5C). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use the method taught by Herlache to modify the method taught by Lanvers in order to more quickly, completely and efficiently fill the mold cavity with the injected plastic.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1732

4. Claim 1 is provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of copending Application No. 10/101,126. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

5. Claims 11 and 12 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims of copending Application No. 10/101,126. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use the claimed apparatus to practice the method taught by 10/101,126 (See Figures 1 and 2).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
